

Here and There In The Shops

THEIR fabrics, their silhouettes, their colorings endorse the approval of the mode and make the clever frocks at Switzer's Style Shop most desirable for the Easter wardrobe. There are perfectly fascinating dresses for afternoon wear of Cascade, La Jerz, Baronet and other styles. In addition to the gown of muslin and lace, there will be a low bodice, a bit of drapery, and there are smart silk gingham suits along strictly simple lines with a distinctive little touch for which the Switzer's garments are noted. The skirts of wool jersey and men's wear material are quite prominent for recreation wear and with the new sleeveless coats gives one an extra suit. The coats, by the way, are quite the thing. In velvet, jersey and silk they are the most attractive novelty offered yet this season, and with a pretty blouse are good for most any occasion. The smart shades emphasized in the Switzer offerings are tomato, jade and turquoise.

"THERE is nothing high about our blankets but the quality," declared Mr. Graves on his return from the Navajo region where he procured an interesting collection which is now in the stock of the Graves Indian Shop on West Adams street. Although the Navajos are getting to be a scarce article, Mr. Graves has been fortunate in securing a number of blankets, large and small, that make clever couch covers, pillow tops and rugs. The color, design, weave, in every rug indicate that each one was selected by a discerning buyer. In addition to the remarkable blanket display, Mr. Graves has unique bits of pottery, distinctive jewelry of hammered silver set with stones and made by the Indians—in fact the shop is deserving of its reputation "for it is truly the house of a thousand novelties."

MAKING up your spring social calendar? Now if you are to play hostess during the most delightful season of the year we would suggest that you give the little details attention to the place cards for instance. They have perfectly irresistible ones at the McNeill company featuring spring fancies in the pale pinks and delicate tones of yellow in vogue just now.

BACK to ye olden days—when sweethearts were real sweethearts and gallantly sent their lady-loves nosegays of such fascinating appeal. The Arizona Seed and Floral company is preparing for just such an Easter and has arranged for a large stock of Easter and Calla lilies. For those who care for other fragrant flowers they will find a wide variety and plants too, of every type. They suggest your order be placed early.

THE Tribble Market has experienced a wonderful increase in its business, which is not at all surprising to anyone who has had dealings with them. The shop is clean, the service excellent and the cuts always just as ordered. In addition to the many advantages of trading there, it is to be remembered that the shop operates independently. The Tribble Market is not connected with any other meat concern.

HAGEMAN has broken through the line on prices. He has had the opportunity to purchase carloads of Standard Plumbing enamelware, and is offering the better, contractor to private individual an opportunity to buy at a saving of from 25 to 45 per cent off the regular price. Among other things, included in the George Hageman company sale, is a 5-foot white enamel tub, laundry trays, lavatories and sinks.

EASTER is the season to think about giving the home interior new furnishings—a new dress as you might say. Get ready for spring and summer with draperies, rugs and reed furniture. Dorris-Heyman's is the place to go to get the new suit for the home—Arizona's leading home furnishings.

TO BE immaculately tailored is to be always strikingly noticeable, and such a suit must be made to order for the wearer. Shaeffer is renowned for his workmanship, and despite the war conditions, he has a remarkable stock of material for suits for men and women.

DESPITE the much talked of scarcity of materials, labor and transportation, spring footwear fashions are as dainty, as colorful and as widely varied as ever before—as noted from the stock of the Nelson Shoe company.

REVEALING the season's style trend in picturesque array are the smart hats to be found at the Hamon Millinery shop located at 29 West Adams street. Easter suggests hats, does it not?

GIVE her some fresh proof of your thoughtfulness for Easter when you send her a cluster of fragrant lilies or a cleverly arranged bouquet of spring flowers from Brazeas.

IF YOU want to buy a diamond—Mack Gardner undersells them all. He is located at 45 North Central avenue.

RELIEVE yourself of the responsibility of arranging the Easter dinner by dining at the American Kitchen.

HARRY E. VERNON recently purchased a Chandler Club Roadster and he says the more he sees of other cars the better he likes his Chandler.

NEW YORK is recognized in the ultra smart ready-to-wear at Goldwaters. The undeniable charm of clever costume is clearly brought out in the modish suits—the frocks and the silk gingham and foulard dresses, that are in vogue for afternoon occasions. A little touch, a bit of drapery, a certain line pronounced and you have a Goldwater model that is distinctly different from any other. The odd skirt with the new sleeveless sweater is accentuated in the spring offerings and in the millinery department we saw chic hats for just such wear. They have also the white hat that is a close rival of the black, which will always be fashionable and which comes in such varieties. Fruit and flower trimming is shown as is the burnt ostrich among the many other new conceits.

REMEMBER the boy in camp at Easter time with a wrist watch—clever, assortment to be found at Rosenzweigs.

AS the season advances for canning the Arizona Grocery company wishes to remind the housewife who is particular that they are the exclusive distributors for Good Luck jar rings. There are the only safe kind to use for the modern cold packed method of canning as taught by the government. They have been tested and proved by the Good Housekeeping Institute. Do not forget they may be had in Phoenix at the Arizona Grocery.

AS FAR back as history records, property has been dear to the human race and has been given proper protection accordingly. The automobile has come to mean something more than a thing in itself—it is a man's property and as such a thing to him as any part of his home and a part from which he and his family derive more than an ordinary amount of happiness. It is interesting to note the constantly increasing number of persons who appreciate the usefulness of a car, as well as its pleasure and who appreciate they are concerned with its care and its protection. The Arizona Mutual Auto Insurance company of which Carl Anderson is secretary-treasurer, has policies that cover all contingencies. For instance, if your car is stolen from the garage or from the street, the loss is theirs. And it is not only theft you have to consider if you are a car owner, but accident and fire. It is well to be protected in case you collide with another car, or run into a pole or tree or have one of the accidents that are occurring every day in the world. Then too, you may hit a pedestrian and then there's the action for damages. Talk it over with Mr. Anderson who will tell you all about the combination policies for your car. He is located at 115 North First avenue.

THAT little Easter attention which means so much should not be overlooked. A graceful mode of expression lies in Whitman's Sampler chocolates to be found at the Central Pharmacy.

FOR THE ranch and the country place here commercial light is not available, there is the very excellent substitute in the Alamo Lighting plant for which Bertram Brothers are the agents. You have no doubt been attracted to their window exhibit and have gained a clear idea of what electric light throughout your home and outbuildings could mean. Think of having the electric power to operate your household appliances, at the pressing of a button. That is what the Alamo unit system furnishes.

BE THIRTY in your Easter shopping and with what you save, start a savings account at the Phoenix Savings Bank and Trust company. It is the patriotic thing to do for our attitude toward thrift today may determine whether, as a nation, we shall stand or fall a half century hence. Incidentally the person who systematically saves will never find a black cloud of debt shadowing his life.

THERE is a distinct air of affluence and good taste about the man who is careful of his appearance—and that goes a long way in successful business and socially. Are we right? Then we have found the type in the Hirsch-Wickware suits—distinctive apparel—that one likes to see worn by the men of the family. Hyder's, of course, is the place where you will find the suits in question and there too, are the shirts, ties, and other little accessories in the newly arrived spring stock.

REFRESHING in their originality are the clever Mark Cross novelties we discovered at McDougall and Cassous. They not only are of high artistic value, but are useful as well, and include fascinating sewing baskets, desk novelties and little things for the boudoir.

THERE is an understanding man at the Boston Store who buys for the infant's department. We do not believe that any mother could think of a thing for her baby that she could not find there and at such very reasonable prices! Dear little dresses, coats, undergarments. Just as fine and sweet as can be and all those other things for the tiny folk that look more as if they came from a convent than from a huge factory. Mr. Mario, the manager of the store, has a special regard for the kiddies, and it is quite natural that the April 1 baby show should be staged at the Boston Store. It will be held on the mezzanine floor and will attract large numbers interested in child welfare.

IN OBSERVANCE of the conservation laws, manufacturers are putting forth their best efforts. This is demonstrated in the new Liberty cracker—a delicious crisp wafer, the ingredients of which have been passed upon by patriots. The Goldman Grocery company has just received a fresh shipment of the patriotic cracker.

ALTHOUGH the powers and energies of all of us are rightly absorbed in the single purpose of winning the war, may not just one stray thought be given to recalling that the trees are blossoming and spring is here? Altman's Flower Shop is spring personified, with its wealth of flowers and its irresistible potted Easter lilies. Place your Easter order for your favorite flower, and it will be artistically arranged and delivered—a charming holiday greeting.

AT THE Marinello Shoppe the work is done by skilled cosmeticians. Electrical scalp and facial work a specialty. Hairdressing and manicuring as well.

THE CALIFORNIA Fish and Poultry Market is the only meat market that receives fresh fish and oysters daily. It has everything but hens in the poultry line.

SERVICE rings and pins at Friedman's.

VAMPIRE? It might be you or any of your friends in the new frock of that name that has been received from New York by Koppick's. It is a stunning thing of brown and white plaid silk gingham, trimmed with black with that certain smartness that cannot be described. They have never had such an array of spring frocks as they have this season—checked silks, foulards, some plaid, others combined with serge or georgette and linen and gingham models, each featuring a new conceit. Some have clever collars, others vested effects or sleeves that are subtly different, telling notes that make for newness. Mrs. Hill showed us a white tulle suit of Georgette that was exceptionally smart and perfectly ravishing. New skirts for recreation wear with the attractive blouse or tailored waist. Koppick's hats seem to have been conceived to complete just such costumes. Most of them are black and those flower trimmed seem to have the preference for Easter wear. The burnt ostrich is in vogue too, the assortment of hats being varied and as far from the commonplace as if made to the individual order.

DOES it not seem logical to you that the makers of the best clothes for a period of sixty-three years should continue to make the best clothes? Stein Bloch smart clothes to be had only at Goldberg's.

THE MOST live and progressive music house in Arizona is the Kerr and Smalley company which is located at 144 West Washington street. Their leading piano is the well known Kimball though they carry other makes of pianos as well. They are also the exclusive dealer for the Kimball and Puthe phonographs which machines play all makes of records. Their stock of up-to-date music and player rolls is the largest in the state. "These terms are very liberal and their slogan is 'its easy to pay the Kerr and Smalley way.'"

NOTHING could be more dignified than a handsome marble front for a downtown office, shop or hotel. Entirely of marble or marble trimmings give a fine distinguished appearance to a building that has a psychological effect that is worth consideration. Vernon L. Clark, established at 145 West Monroe street, has excellent material of marble which is prepared to install. He also handles tiles, having a variety of kinds, making it only a matter of selection in finding one to harmonize with the enamel and tiling of the bath room and exactly suit the fancy.

ONE OUT of every five tires discarded can be redeemed. Probably all of your old tires can be rejuvenated. Why throw them away simply because the tread is worn off? You have realized but 25 per cent of your tire value when your tire tread is worn off. Get the full 100 per cent by having Payne and Sausley Rubber company, 201 North Central avenue, rebuild and retread your worn tires. They can often save tires with even more than the tread gone and they guarantee all work.

CHILDREN'S white dresses ranging in size up to 14 years old and priced from 95c to $2.98, are to be found at the Popular Dry Goods company. They also have a complete line of specially priced women's and children's white shoes in canvas, kid and nubuck.

IT IS spring in the shops and everywhere one goes the same invitation is extended to add to the wardrobe. It is truly difficult to exercise the saving that is being preached, but in color we learned a lesson in thrift. A last season's hat, perfectly good but a bit burnt from the sun, is given a new tone with the coloring matter sold by the Busy Drug Store. The difference between the price of color and that of a new spring bonnet might be used for War Savings stamps.

WITH THE combined offerings of ready-to-wear and tailor made, one should have no difficulty in finding just what he wants at the Woollen Suit House. Go the first thing in the morning and make your selection either of a material for your new spring suit or make the purchase of one already made that will not be lacking in style. This suit house also has a splendid assortment of shirts, the goodlooking kind that wear well and are chosen by discerning buyers. Collars, neckwear and other small accessories that are springtime needs.

THRIFT as you know does not apply wholly to funds. The government desires our citizens to save in energy and strength and in the Western Electric portable sewing machine that runs itself and saves a tired body. The cost of operation is surprisingly low—one and a quarter cent an hour. At the New State Electric Supply and Fixture company they showed us how the machine could be tucked away on a shelf or under a couch, completely out of sight, after the sewing has been finished, another worth-remembering feature.

WHEN YOU are down town shopping do drop in for luncheon at the Adams Pharmacy. Everything they serve is perfectly delicious and for a simple little noon-day luncheon, we would not think of recommending any other place.

NO MATTER what we start out to buy, we invariably end our shopping at Donofrio's. It makes no difference what our plans were for the day, whether to buy a frock or a beefsteak, we find ourselves at Donofrio's enjoying a delicious drink or a refreshing sherbet. But let me tell you that if your guide book has an item reading "Easter Novelties," you do not want to conclude your shopping there for that is the starting point and the termination, too. Never before have we seen so many fascinating little conceits for the holidays—interesting favors and clever things for the youngsters who are so eagerly anticipating Easter morning.

PROTECTION has become the eleventh commandment of the modern world and one thing every man wants to protect to the utmost is his home. The Johns-Manville asbestos roofing is "safe from fire and weather," furthermore, it is cooler in summer and warmer in winter, which makes it especially desirable for this country. It is handled by the Phoenix Roofing company, T. J. Smith, manager, and is located at 322 West Washington street. The telephone number is 1074.

DO YOU know the most efficient salesman in the town? Well, he is Jimmie the clerk, and you will find him at convenient spots at the Forage Pot. Jimmie advises, says a word but in printed form directs the shopper without waste of time to anyone concerned. At the Forage Pot there are baskets for use of the customer, while in the store and everything is made agreeable while one markets. The service is excellent, the quality of goods unexcelled and the prices low.

AT THIS time when we must each and everyone of us give our earnest consideration to finance, we must be especially careful where we bank. The National Bank of Arizona, a banking institution that has been in existence since the early days, is the place where the business man and the rancher go when he has a legitimate proposition. And in matters of this kind it is always well to follow the lead of the man of affairs.

IT MAKES a world of difference if one has their digestion. Ever stop to think what a very great deal digestion has to do with disposition? It follows that if one would have the other, or the other have the one, they must look to their teeth. We recommend the sanitary system employed by that expert, Dr. Morrison.

WITH THE warm weather approaching it is well to remember that Taft and Hubbard carry the Quick Meal and Perfection oil stoves, Herick refrigerators and Toledo fireless cook stoves.

EASTER morning. The messenger arrives with a growing Easter lily—the most prized gift as the new season dawns. Surely there is no little act that could be more pleasing than the sending of this floral message. The Donofrio Floral department will receive 600 flowering plants in addition to the many dozen cut Easter lilies for the holiday. Charlie Morton says that the spring flowers that have been so popular will also be in stock, their dainty fragrance making them especially adaptable for the corsage bouquet. Then too, there will be the blossoms that are so well suited for decorative purposes, and you know the charm that flowers lend the home.

TO GET down to the practical things of life, have you seen the demonstration of the Dangler oil stoves and ranges at the Palace Hardware and Arms company? It quite opened our eyes, although we had heard, of course, that these stoves and ranges secured the medal at the Panama Pacific exposition. They are perfectly safe to operate and give "twice the heat on half the oil." No stove has been perfected that bakes more perfectly, we are told by people who have had a world of experience in these things. Drop in and let them demonstrate for you.

MR. EDWARD Elsie of the Phoenix Bakery extends cordial Easter greetings. The shop, of which he is proprietor, certainly plays a big part in preparations for Easter as it does for any holiday. The many delicious dainties that add to luncheon, dinner or late supper can be secured there as you know. The cakes and pastry you seek to your family and guests from this bakery are made as carefully as in the home and as for bread and rolls, the home baker can not compete with the experienced men who serve thousands daily.

HANNY'S is ready for the offensive. The man who would be well groomed will storm the home of Hart Schaffner and Marx clothing for the many things he will require for the Easter affairs. Hanny's has prepared for the spring activities in securing the standard merchandise of America, and has a complete line of fine clothes of recognized make and value. After you have broken through the line and captured a new suit bombard the shoe department and then on to the shirts, hats, neckwear and hosiery.

WHAT do the appointments count—the crystal, the flowers—if the table linen is not immaculate? A careless crease, a smeary streak and the effect, you have attempted is lost. It means so much to have the table tempting and of course the feature is the cloth which has the fine damask look of newness, when it has been laundered by the Arizona Laundry. It has the bluish tint that is so difficult to secure, and comes only with the use of aniline blues. The Arizona Laundry was fortunate in having on hand a large quantity of the best bluing purchased years ago and will be able to continue it in use. It does away entirely with the yellow tint that is certainly undesirable. Attention is paid to the manner in which the table cloth is folded and every detail to make for the perfectly laundered article is given consideration.

THERE is much truth in the statement that a motor car owner has more personal efficiency than the person who does not own a car. When convinced of this fact, the next step is naturally the selection of the automobile and it is a wise prospective buyer who makes his way to the R. D. Roper Motor Car company's showroom on North Central avenue. He will soon become convinced that the Chalmers is the car for him, as the many good points of the machine are brought to his attention. For an inexpensive car, the Maxwell is almost desirable, as has been demonstrated time and again.

GUN CLUB GROWS TOURNAMENT IS IN PREPARATION

There was a large attendance at the shoot of the Phoenix Gun club yesterday, at the rifle range, six miles east on the McDowell road, a number of new members shooting for the first time and several of the older members making excellent percentages.

Roy De Mund was the high man, getting 49 out of 50 and making a 98 percentage. George Wheeler, a new man in the club made a 90 per cent showing by getting 23 out of 25.

There were about 25 members shooting yesterday. W. B. Twitchell of the club announced that the club was arranging for a big tournament April 21 and that the construction of a club house to be completed for the occasion would be started this week. Mr. Twitchell and other leading members say interest in the club is growing rapidly.

White Sox 5, Outlaws 0. The first game between the White Sox and the Outlaws teams under new management, was played yesterday to a fair crowd in Eastlake park.

MIKE DONOVAN, BIG SPORTSMAN, IS DEAD

(Republican A. P. Leased Wire) NEW YORK, March 24.—Mike Donovan, former middleweight champion pugilist, and widely known as boxing instructor of Theodore Roosevelt, when the colonel was president of the United States, died of pneumonia at a hospital here early today.

"Professor" Donovan, as he was called by Colonel Roosevelt and those under his instruction during the 30 years he supervised boxing at the New York Athletic club, held the friendship of the most prominent men of the country. He retired recently but was serving as physical instructor with a New York field artillery regiment when taken ill.

The former champion was born in Chicago 71 years ago. He served with the 1st Illinois volunteers throughout the civil war. It was in 1866 that he won his first ring victory over Bill Crowley at Pittsburg in a bare knuckle battle.

Later Donovan claimed the middleweight championship of the world and successfully defended the title until his retirement. Although he never weighed more than 156 pounds during his ring career, Donovan twice met John L. Sullivan and other heavyweights.

NEW ORLEANS DOWNED (Republican A. P. Leased Wire) NEW ORLEANS, March 24.—Joe Wood's home run in the eleventh with a man on bases broke the tie and gave the Cleveland Americans a 9 to 7 victory over the New Orleans Southern association team today.
